CASA Program Updates:

April is Child Abuse Awareness month. Our office was busy with activities to promote community awareness of child abuse. We distributed Blue Ribbon bookmarks to all the social service agencies in the McLean, Livingston, and Dewitt counties. We also distributed Blue Ribbon Bookmarks to the Wal-Mart customers in Bloomington, Pontiac, and Clinton. Our office coordinated a large Light of Hope ceremony that took place on April 8, 2003 at the Children's Advocacy Center. We had Mr. William Yoder, States Attorney, and Honorable James A. Knecht, an Appellate Court Judge presenting information and statistics on child abuse. This Light of Hope Ceremony was well attended, and we hope this will be a yearly event. We held a second Light of Hope Ceremony in Dewitt County on April 17, 2003. We held a third Light of Hope ceremony in Livingston County on April 23, 2003. These two ceremonies were well attended.

In addition to all of the community events, we attended 33 court hearings, and continued CASA training two nights per week. We have had 11 classes to date, with numerous speakers from the community. We have had Judge Dozier, (Judiciary), Judy Renner, (Assistant State's Attorney) Dawn Webber, (DCFS), Alan Novick, (attorney) and Barb Adkins, (Diversity) come and speak to the class. These speakers give a great perspective to our new volunteers. Our program is very fortunate to have these community speakers donate their time to teach our new advocates. At this time, we have 15 volunteers in the class, to graduate on May 1st. They will have a case assigned right away, as we have been holding cases from the judiciary.

McLean Couty JAIL REVIEW COMMITTEE
c/o Bob Sutherland, Secretary
501 E. Willow Street
Normal, IL 61761

May 15, 2003

Carmen,

Tari Renner, Chair of the Justice Committee of the County Board, would like for every member of the Justice Committee to routinely receive the Minutes of the McLean County Jail Review Committee.

Jan Clark in the Sheriff's Dept. said that she will routinely forward the Minutes to you for distribution. I'd appreciate it if you would Xerox them and put a copy in each member's mailbox. Thanks. (The Jail Review Committee meets—and generates Minutes— every two months.)

Bob Sutherland

JUSTICE COMMITTEE:

Tari Renner, chair
Susie Johnson
Sandra (Sonny) Rodgers
Bette Rackauskas
Adam D. Kinzinger
Bob Nuckolls

McLean County Jail Review Committee
Minutes of the meeting of March 27, 2003

Present: Tom Shea, chair, Mary Lynn Edwards, Manuel Mendoza, Bob Sutherland, Gerry Westerfield Absent: Joe Estrada, Melinda Fellner, Francis Irvin (exc.), James Joyner (on leave), James Sims (exc.), Janice White, Mark White Visitors: Greg Allen, Sonny Rodgers (Justice Committee, County Board)

DATE OF NEXT MEETING: Thursday, May 22, 2003 at 7:00 sharp at the Jail

The meeting was called to order at 7:05 p.m. by Tom Shea. The Minutes of the meeting of January 23 were approved on a motion by Edwards, seconded by Mendoza. The secretary announced that Mike Walden has resigned from the Committee; we thank him for his service.

The Sheriff's response to the Committee's Report on inmate interviews. Sheriff Owens has written a letter in response to the report on Inmate Interviews which the Jail Review Committee sent him. Shea feels it would be useful to have a meeting with Owens to discuss the Sheriff's responses and explore ways in which the Jail Review Committee can be helpful in increasing external resources for the welfare of inmates. Shea will try to set up a meeting in which the JRC officers will meet with the Sheriff.

Distribution of Minutes to members of the Justice Committee of the County Board. For years, minutes of the Jail Review Committee have routinely been sent to the chair of the Justice Committee of the County Board. Tari Renner, the new chair of the Justice Committee, has told the JRC Secretary that the outgoing chair, Joe Sommer, did not turn over to Renner the minutes of the JRC that he had received during his tenure. Renner has requested that the Secretary send a copy of all current and subsequent minutes of the JRC to him and to every member of the Justice Committee. Accordingly, the Secretary sent copies of the minutes of the meeting of January 23 to each member of the Justice Committee.

Westerfield said that, while he himself has no problem with sending minutes to members of the Justice Committee, our Committee should clear doing so with Sheriff Owens to see if he has any objection to it. He feels that such consultation is important for the JRC's remaining true to its relationship with the Sheriff's Department. Mendoza agrees that clearing the action with the Sheriff is a positive step and asked that the minutes record that this question came up for discussion. Sutherland, as Secretary, will contact the Sheriff to inquire if he has any objection to the JRC's sending its minutes to all members of the Justice Committee.

Invitations to Renner and to the State's Attorney. Shea thinks it would be good to invite Tari Renner, as Chair of the Justice Committee, and William Yoder, the newly appointed State's Attorney, to visit the Jail Review Committee. We need to know the philosophies and plans of both officials, and they need to know about us and what we're about. Shea will pursue the possibility of having one or both of them attend the meeting of July 24, 2003.

Possible revision of the JRC By-Laws. The By-Laws of the Jail Review Committee have not been critically reviewed since 1990. We as a Committee need to formalize our voting procedures for election of officers, and this codification should be stipulated in the By-Laws. Accordingly, a Subcommittee was formed to codify voting procedures and to look over the By-Laws with an eye to recommending any changes that seem necessary or desirable. Members are: Edwards, Irvin, Mendoza, and Sutherland.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Sutherland, Secretary

RE: Monthly Reports

This months report will show a sharp increase in the number of 9-1-1 calls due to the movement of the wireless calls from seven digit numbers to the 9-1-1 trunks. This will increase as we bring the last two wireless carriers on line. We expect the call volume to increase another 20 to 30% once Phase 2 is completed.

I have provided a new report named Calls for Service that reflect the number of emergency and non-emergency responses based on 9-1-1 calls. Also the report divides the calls in Law Enforcement and Fire/EMS calls.

The last report is the Monthly Resolution Report and we have achieved a less than 100 unexplained error total. We, of course, continue to work on these numbers to reduce them.

The Verizon wireless tariff will go into effect one June 1 of this year and will cost the ETSB an additional $9,749.35 per month or $116,992.20 per year. Also, expected to go into effect in the last quarter of 2003 is the new wire line tariff that is expected to increase the ETSB cost for that service from $199,668.48 to $354,068.64. This increase could vary as the ICC has not completed in review. This number is an assumption based on information provided by Verizon's governmental regulatory department.

At the last meeting I advised the committee about the internet telephone company Vanage offering local and long distance service. As of last week a new company has begun operations under the name of WEBNET.

Respectfully submitted,

William H. Gamblin, ENP

RE: 9-1-1 Calls for April

Attached chart indicates the number of 9-1-1 calls received in April. It also compares April to the previous three month's call volume. It can be noted that a 30.4% increase in calls in April over January of this year due in part to the fact that the cellular calls are now coming in on 9-1-1 trucks and are now included in the 9-1-1 call count. Will cellular calls are increasing all of the time this 30% figure represents the calls that we were handling on seven digit telephone numbers.

Historically, 9-1-1 systems across the U.S. indicate cellular calls range from 25% to 60% of their calls for service.

William H. Gamblin, ENP

RE: Monthly Report

Please find attached the April resolution report and statistics. As you will note errors are now below 100 errors. Also, the increase in the 9-1-1 calls is due to the testing of wireless calls and the switching of the cellular calls from the seven-digit to the 9-1-1 trucks.
